Product information

The Vault Lite IR180 from RidgeMonkey is your most powerful and versatile portable light source yet. It combines the functions of a flashlight, floodlight and power bank in a single, compact and IP67 waterproof housing. With an impressive 5200mAh rechargeable battery, a 180-lumen flashlight, a tri-color variable brightness floodlight and a 5V 2.1A USB power bank output, the Vault Lite IR180 will keep your devices powered and illuminated for up to 240 hours. The new IR system, controllable by the tactile integrated multi-function button or the included infrared wireless remote control, improves range, reliability and responsiveness, making the Vault Lite IR180 the best remote control option in its class.

You can mount it to any ferrous metal, awning or tent thanks to the integrated magnetic fittings and included backing plate. Its fully waterproof, IP67-certified construction makes it impervious to dust and water.
