The Trakker NXC Camo Net Float is an essential accessory for any angler who wants to effectively protect their landing net when out on the water. This slim, compact and extremely buoyant aid prevents your landing net from sinking. It is easy to fit and the elastic net holder prevents even deep nets from getting caught. A Velcro fastener over the spreader block secures the Net Float behind the landing net arms to prevent it from sliding along the pole during use. Thanks to its flexibility, it is compatible with most brands and models of landing net, making it an indispensable companion for your landing net and NXC luggage.
