Product information

Squid flour is an extremely popular ingredient in fishing baits such as Boilies, doughs and groundbait. A not too fine powder that is guaranteed to attract carp and other fish. This flour is one of the most effective ingredients for offering high quality food to carp.

Made from whole squid, this meal is rich in amino acids with a protein content of over 80% and a protein digestibility of more than 93%. Squid meal is known to strongly stimulate carp and other cyprinid species. This flour therefore greatly enhances your food.

Recommended dosage:
Boilies and for match groundbait: up to 20% possible in the mix
