These stickers not only offer great designs, but also a high level of protection. Each sticker is laminated with a UV layer that protects it from mechanical damage such as scratches or abrasion. As a result, the stickers last longer and look like new even after a Lang period of use. The transparent PP packaging ensures that the stickers can be stored and transported safely and securely. Whether you use the stickers on your car, laptop or other items, they will retain their quality and color intensity. Get our durable and protective stickers now and give your items a personalized look! Dimensions: 150x93mm (HxW)
