Product information

The Korda Safety Inline Sleeve Nano Tubing/Leadcore has been specially developed for use with Nano Tubing and Leadcore. These sleeves ensure a safe assembly with Korda inline leads and ensure that the lead is easily released from the assembly in the event of a line breakage. Thanks to the slim design, the sleeve fits perfectly without the need for a tail rubber.

Features:

- Suitable for all inline leads from Korda
- Specially developed for Nano Tubing and Leadcore
- Insert compatible with all Korda size 8 swivels
- Slim and streamlined design
- Perfect for use with solid bags
- Available in three sizes: Small, Medium and Large
- Also available as a naked line version
