The Sonik Neoprene Rod Strap Set offers a simple and secure solution for securing your rod and reel during transport or storage. The set includes two neoprene straps and an additional elastic strap for securing the reel seat and rotor. An elastic loop at the end can be placed over a rod ring so that each rod section is individually wrapped and better protected.

Features:

- Set of two neoprene rod straps
- Includes additional elastic strap for reel seat and rotor
- Secures rod and reel during transport
- Elastic loop for attaching to the rod ring
- Protects rod segments from friction and damage
