Product information

More colors of a true fan favorite have been added to the range. The original Nanny Pat Hat has a very special history, as it was originally hand-knitted by none other than Jon Mann's mother.

Made with love and care, it was the first of its kind. Since its inclusion in the Korda beanie collection, it has remained by far the most popular hat in the range. The cozy fit reflects the original idea: to keep Jon warm during his countless hours on the water and allow him to concentrate fully.

The Nanny Pat Hat made its first big appearance around ten years ago in Total Carp Magazine, where it quickly became an absolute fan favorite. Since then, it has remained an integral part of the Korda Clothing collection.

In addition to the original, eye-catching green and black version, the hat is now also available in all black and dark olive. While the bold green makes a clear statement, black and dark olive offer a subtle, timeless alternative. Thanks to its one-size-fits-all design, it fits almost everyone.

Features:

- Now available in three colors
