Rod protectors for the tip and butt sections during transport or storage. The rod protectors are made of 3mm-thick neoprene, while the ends are double-reinforced to better protect sensitive parts of the rod.

Both parts are connected with a sturdy elastic band and are suitable for two-piece rods ranging from 9 to 13 feet.

Product information

The Velcro fasteners can be quickly tightened or loosened and ensure a secure hold during transport. An elastic strap for securing the reel handle is also included.
