Are you looking for a boilie that will serve you well in every fishing situation?
Then you have finally found your perfect bait with "The Secret of the Sea"!

Product information

This boilie has proven to be extremely effective in numerous tests and will also impress you with its fantastic results. Its complex composition of high-quality ingredients such as fish meal, poultry meal, blood meal, squid liver meal, and betaine make it a real treat for carp.

The secret of "The Secret of the Sea" lies in its perfect interaction in the water and its unique squid & octopus flavor, which is of the highest quality. This makes it immediately noticeable to carp in the water as a high-quality food source and is accepted immediately.

To get the most out of this boilie, we recommend feeding it over longer periods of time. This way, you can expect big surprises from spring to late fall and you will see the difference for yourself.

"The Secret of the Sea" is the all-rounder among boilies and will serve you well in any fishing situation. Try it now and let its catchy properties convince you!

You can find matching pop-ups, wafers, liquids, pellets, etc. here: Watercraft Secret of the Sea Range
