This hook is a bank for large carp in the most difficult situations. Extremely strong, but razor sharp!
Despite its wire thickness, the Kurv X has a very long, straight point that penetrates super fast. Located between the normal and the XX version, it is the perfect compromise between strength and sharpness.

Product information

Together with its shape, it is a hook for cautious fish from difficult waters and strong enough for all situations.

The Kurv Shank is a very versatile hook and can be used with both pop-up and bottom bait rigs, including popular presentations such as the KD and IQ D rig. It has great hooking characteristics thanks to an aggressively inward curved eye and a curved shank that helps it turn over and hold in the mouth, even when used without a shrink tube or kicker.
